

Satellite radio has been a breath of fresh air to the remote reaches of central Louisiana. It is a vital link to sources of information and culture otherwise completely unavailable to rural areas. I vigorously oppose any efforts to limit or curtail the content which may be broadcast on satellite radio, be that weather, news, talk, music, or any other information.